

New York

For Dummies

2015

The United States is the world's largest economy and as such a great prospect to explore. On August 19, SACC New York will be joining forces with partners in Sweden for a seminar on establishing and expanding a business into the U.S.

Listen to Swedish entrepreneurs and other professionals who have all made it in the U.S., alongside legal experts sharing their insights. Meet people who can guide you through the U.S. corporate jungle and teach you more about the world's largest market.
